Maureen - Thank you, so much, for praying with me for my son Nick, at yesterday's Mega Prayer session. He's been in great pain due to needing dental surgery. Nick did not need pain medication last night; he said the pain was tolerable.

His oral surgeon told him at today's consultation that he's booking three months from now, but during the appointment a cancellation for this Monday, July 31st, became available. Nick is getting all his wisdom teeth removed Monday.

I'm in awe how God is faithful.

July 24th

Kelly - He healed my mom, she had brain surgery recently, a few days after surgery she had 2 seizures and got a blood infection. We just got word tonight it is all gone! And she no longer has pain from the surgery and she is 100% back to normal (the seizures caused temporary paralysis and speech/cognitive problems). Praise the Lord!!
