Dec 22nd

I prayed about two months ago for a new job and I got to the second round and wasn't chosen, after two weeks I got a call back to get offered the job because I the other candidate dropped out. It's a huge pay upgrade from my last one. I was living pay check to pay check but 2025 is the year the curses of scarcity and lacking are broken! Help me say hallelujah everyone praying for a job, seek the Lord fiercely with nothing to expect and everything else will follow.

October 27th

Last Sunday I came to church with severe tooth ache and when pastor Matias was praying and told us to bring all our burdens before God, I prayed that God would heal me from my pain. After the service i was not feeling the pain anymore.

October 30th

Venice – I asked for prayers for my colleague, who was having a season of trials and stress. One of those was that her home was left into a horrible state by her tenants. After her recent separation, she was not able to move back in because of how badly damaged it was. She was stressed that she would not receive a loan from the bank because of her age and marital status of being single. She at the same time have to care for her ailing father who was suppose to be operated on also. It has been a difficult year for her. I asked her permission if she would want my Bethel family to pray for her. She empathically said yes. This morning she received the call from the bank. The loan request has been approved!!

2 weeks ago I got a concussion at my football game and I was told that a second concussion could possibly kill me. A week after I got the concussion, I was accidentally hit at practice and I couldn't move my legs and my neck, I went into shock twice and I was unconscious for some time. After some minutes the ambulance came and took me to the hospital. I was diagnosed with a second concussion. I thank God that I wasn't paralysed and I didn't die.

September 8th

8 people raised their hand to follow Jesus this Sunday!

Jen – Our Lord is so faithful! Less than 2 weeks ago, I submitted a prayer request for my daughter to find a new apartment in Toronto –one that met all her needs in a safe neighbourhood. After multiple showings, multiple declined offers, many tears & frustration, I'm happy to report she signed her lease yesterday!! Jesus brought the perfect new home to her in His timing but more importantly, she recognizes that His plan does works together for our good! Thank you so much Bethel family for praying!

September 4th

Charlene – God has been so faithful and kept his promises! Even when I almost lost hope he has always been there. After waiting since 2021 for my permanent residence, my application finally got approved.
